

ONLINE CATALOGUE | LUDOVIC-RODO PISSARRO: PARISIAN LIFE (1904-1910)

APRIL 08, 2022

For this current online catalogue, we chose to share with you works by Ludovic-Rodo Pissarro, created in Paris between 1904-1910. Following the passing of his father, Camille Pissarro in 1903, Ludovic-Rodo became a more modern artist, exhibiting with the Fauve group who were recognised as the cutting-edge movement of the time.

We consider works from this period the most significant from Ludovic-Rodo's career. As they rarely appear on the market, this catalogue offers the exciting opportunity to purchase one of these early Parisian works.

Please click here to view our online catalogue.

For further information please contact the gallery at stern@pissarro.com.