THE PISSARRO FAMILY AT INDIANAPOLIS MUSEUM OF ART

MAY 09, 2026

Opening this spring at the Indianapolis Museum of Art, Impressionism Across Generations: The Pissarro Family Legacy explores the artistic dialogue between Camille Pissarro and his sons, Lucien and Georges. Featuring works from the museum's permanent collection, the exhibition traces the family's contribution to the development of Impressionism and Neo-Impressionism, offering a thoughtful perspective on artistic exchange across generations.
